For details about Journeys see reverse side

All members, in order to be in good standing, and travel as a representative of the Utah club, must serve as a Home Host, Day Host or Dinner Host when another club comes to Utah for an incoming journey. This is important for our club to remain in good standing with Friendship Force International.

Journeys

Incoming Journey

_____ Coordinator - Work with the incoming journey coordinator to plan for their visit. Assign hosts with ambassadors so they can establish a friendship.

_____ Co-coordinator - Assist the journey coordinator with planning an itinerary of activities for the incoming ambassadors.

_____ Home Host - host one or two people in your home. Provide breakfast and occasional dinners.

_____ Day Host - Help the home host by taking their ambassadors to the scheduled activities for the day.

_____ Dinner Host - Host ambassadors and their home host in your home for dinner. Possibly invite other club members or friends.

_____ Assemble bags for the ambassadors. Gather items and pack them.

_____ Prepare the Program Booklet. Assist the journey coordinator with writing and printing the Program Booklet containing the journey itinerary.

Outgoing Journey

_____ Journey Coordinator – Serve as the contact between the two clubs.

_____ Co-coordinator - Assist the journey coordinator in interacting with the coordinator from the incoming club. Advertise the Outgoing Journey. Work with FFI to collect applications and fees for the journey.
